

Associate Professor Titela VÎLCEANU, PhD, Department of British-American and German Studies, Faculty of Letters; Director of The Translatio Centre for Translation, University of Craiova. Her research focus is on Translation Studies, Pragmatics, Intercultural communication and Legal English.

She is also a methodologist accredited by the British Council Romania and by the University of Edinburgh, Institute for Applied Language Studies; a Romanian language linguistic administrator (AD5) in the field of translation, certified by the European Personnel Selection Office (EPSO)-European Commission; a Bologna expert certified by EACEA; an international evaluator with SKVC (Centre for Quality Assessment in Higher Education), Lithuania and AQAS (Agency for Quality Assurance through Accreditation of Study Programmes), Germany; an ARACIS (Romanian Agency for Quality Assurance in Higher Education) evaluator in the field of Applied Modern Languages.

Membership of professional bodies: ESSE (The European Society for the Study of English), RSEAS (The Romanian Society for English and American Studies), Bologna Experts Community (<http://www.bolognaexperts.net/user/342>), The Linguists List, International Linguistics Community Online, (<http://linguistlist.org/people/personal/get-personal-page2.cfm?PersonID=199728>), British Council Network, Romania (PRESETT and UNISCHOOL projects, 1997-2000), IATEFL (International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language), ELTECS (English Language Teaching Contacts Scheme).

She has attended 22 international conferences abroad and 57 in country, and she has authored 5 books and 3 coursebooks, as well as 60 papers, most of them published in peer-reviewed journals (indexed in international databases). She has participated in 18 national and international interdisciplinary research programmes.

Contact: elavilceanu@yahoo.com